

Floating Wetlands as a Component of Lake Restoration

Prepared By Andy Bruere

THE ROTORUA LAKES
Protection and Restoration Action Programme
An Environment Bay of Plenty, Rotorua District Council and Te Arawa Lakes Trust joint project

1

Acknowledgements

- Te Arawa Lakes Trust
  - Hera Smith
- Consultants
  - John MacIntosh
  - Andy Woolhouse

THE ROTORUA LAKES
Protection and Restoration Action Programme
An Environment Bay of Plenty, Rotorua District Council and Te Arawa Lakes Trust joint project

2

Outline

- Background to Rotorua Lakes Restoration
- Lake Ōkaro Restoration Components
- Lake Rotoehu Wetland proposals
- The Floating Wetland Project

THE ROTORUA LAKES
Protection and Restoration Action Programme
An Environment Bay of Plenty, Rotorua District Council and Te Arawa Lakes Trust joint project

3

Rotorua Lakes Restoration Programme

- 12 lakes
- $200M
- Oligotrophic to eutrophic
- Aim to meet TLI
- Nutrient reduction

THE ROTORUA LAKES
Protection and Restoration Action Programme
An Environment Bay of Plenty, Rotorua District Council and Te Arawa Lakes Trust joint project

4

Lake Ōkaro

THE ROTORUA LAKES
Protection and Restoration Action Programme
An Environment Bay of Plenty, Rotorua District Council and Te Arawa Lakes Trust joint project

5

- 40% N reduction
- 30% P reduction

THE ROTORUA LAKES
Protection and Restoration Action Programme
An Environment Bay of Plenty, Rotorua District Council and Te Arawa Lakes Trust joint project

6

